Write ten sentences which use conjunctions to make them longer. See conjunctions list on second sheet. Example: The Castle has a river so it is protected.	Go and visit a castle. Take some pictures of your trip so that you can share it with the class.	Design a piece of Egyptian jewellery. Add labels to describe the design. If you have time, you may like to make your design.	Research a creature that lives in the rain-forest. Draw a picture of it or create a fact file.
Design your own castle. Make sure you label it too.	Research a famous castle. What interesting facts can you find out?	Create your own hieroglyphic alphabet. Can you write you own secret message for you teacher to solve?	Imagine you are a chef in a Tudor kitchen. You need to prepare a delicious banquet for Henry VIII. What scrumptious food will you cook, what will it look and taste like? (Use pictures to help if you want). How many courses will you include? Remember that King Henry liked his food a lot!
Write some words (adjectives) to describe this castle. See second sheet for the picture.	Make a list of all the things that are magnetic in your house.
